CORRECT IDEA.

The editor of the Washington, D. C., Capital appreciates the evils of Chinese immigration and is in favor of positive legislation against it. The Capital of December 20th, says:

That the California people are unanimous against Chinese immigration is shown by the action of the Constitutional Convention on the memorial to congress. The Chairman of the committee, General Miller, was a Delegate at Large on the non Partisan ticket. The earnestness with which the convention urges the question demonstrates a fair and deep impression against the heathen Chinese, and it is hoped that the next Congress will deal a decisive blow at one of the great evils which threaten our country. Religiously, morally and politically the Chinaman is inimical to the spirit of our institutions, and is altogether a filthy wretch, as dangerous as he is nasty. The Southern negro is absorbed into our politics to his own good and without harm to the white man. But the Chinaman is irredeemably a creature of his own country, and will never improve.

A New York baking powder company having brought suit for libel against a rival company, it has come out that a large part of the compounds used for the purpose of making bread and biscuit "rise" is composed of burnt alum. Competent physicians and chemists have also been led into the expression of the opinion that burnt alum, when taken into the human stomach continuously, is a deadly poison. Bicarbonate of soda and cream of tartar, the chief components of baking powder, are harmless, but are much more costly than alum, and do not produce such pleasing effects to the eye, hence the use of the poisonous drug. If the statements of the physicians can be relied upon, it is time some legislative and judicial measures were taken to prevent this wholesale poisoning of the human family. One chemist, who analyzed many of the baking powders, says he found burnt alum in nearly all of them, and in some this ingredient was equal to 27 1/2 per cent of the whole, or about the same as 40 per cent. of unburnt alum.

The heliograph is a recent invention for transmitting messages where there are no telegraph lines. It consists of a circular mirror moving upon a joint and supported on a tripod. The operator, by a quick elevation or depression of the glass, so as to catch the full glare of the sun is enabled to throw flashes a distance of twenty-five miles. The length of the flashes corresponds with that of the dashes in the Morse alphabet, by which the messages are translated. Even where the electric telegraph exists, this method of field telegraphy is preferable to the old way especially in war, as it does away the dangers of wire tapping and cutting by the enemy. It was first brought into use in war by the British in their recent operations on the Afghan frontier, and performed its work satisfactorily. The Spanish military authorities have adopted the heliograph, and other powers are considering the propriety of making it a part of their military systems.

There is a bare possibility of the disposition at this session of Congress of the McGarraban case. Senator Garland has prepared a bill, which he will introduce in the Senate at the first opportunity pending the case to the Court of Claims, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court, and the appointment of a receiver of the New Idria Company pending the final decision of matters.

COMMENT on the following is unnecessary. The Carson City papers, a few months ago, contained an item to the effect that a couple of ladies, thickly veiled, had entered a faro bank there, played and won a few dollars, departing without being recognized. The item has been the rounds of the press, sketches of it appearing in the flash illustrated weeklies, representing the scene in a highly picturesque manner. But a little paper down in Vermont caps the climax, by making the assertion that the majority of the ladies of Carson City, Nevada, were confirmed gamblers, who preyed upon their husband's pocket books, the contents of which they staked at faro. This Puritanic sheet winds up by deeply deploring the lack of morals of the female sex in the "Far West."

Penitentes is the name of a singular sect or order existing in great numbers in New Mexico. The self inflicted tortures which they undergo during the season of Lent are almost incredible. With no clothing but a pair of drawers rolled above the knees they carry heavy crosses until they sink under them from exhaustion. As they walk they lash themselves over the shoulders and back with a scourge made of the Spanish bayonet plant, which is full of prickly points, as sharp as needles, until the blood runs down to their feet. An acquaintance informed me that he had seen a man walking with a cross on each shoulder, weighing one hundred pounds each, and a heavy log chain fastened to each foot, while another, with one of these whips plaited to order, scourged him over the back and shoulders for one hour, and this repeated several times during the day. Bear in mind that these men live in the United States; they are voters, and a part of the acquisition of the war with Mexico.

The Lyon County Times has entered upon its tenth volume. Mr. Picotte is making a first-rate journal of the Times.

GENERAL LEDLIE and associates offer to enter into bonds in the sum of $1,000,000, to equip the Nevada Railway with steel rails and have the road in running order from Battle Mountain to Austin by next August.

GEOLOGISTS having reported that there is in Japan enough workable coal to produce a yearly yield equal to that in Great Britain for 1,000 years, the Japanese Government has agreed to grant a loan of $1,500,000 for the purpose of working it.

THE work of getting out timbers, etc., for the building of the branch railroad from the Mound House to Bodie, will be proceeded with this Winter, and the grading of the road will be commenced early in the Spring. The rails will be shipped this Winter.

COLONEL ROBERT G. INGERSOLL is engaged in the practice of law in partnership with Ebon C. Ingersoll in Washington, D. C. In a letter from that city to the editor of the Lyon county Times, he says:

I hope to say a few words for Blaine in 1880 in Nevada.

MASSACHUSETTS refuses to naturalize the Chinese, and the Cabinet at Washington has concluded to open negotiations with the Chinese Government with a view to a modification of the Burlingame treaty, so as to restrict Chinese immigration. All of which means, the Chinese must not come; he may stay or go as he pleases.

THE public schools of the United States require $2.02 from each inhabitant for their support, and military purposes $1.30. In other countries these two items of expenditure are as follows: Prussia, 51 cents and $2.20; Austria, 34 cents and $1.39; France, 29 cents and $1.50; Italy, 18 cents and $1.57; England and Wales, 66 cents and $6.86; Switzerland, 88 cents and $1.

ACCORDING to an English M. P., the most horrible looking crowd in the world is a Glasgow mob. He says: "A Glasgow mob is the very worst mob in the world. Swearing in England is bad, but in Scotland it is awful. There was but one respectable man in this meeting; he lived at Rutherglen, and has since been hanged for murder.—Etc.

Probable that English M. P. had a Glasgow mob after him. If such is the case, we do not wonder at his opinion.

News comes from Canada that the Princess Louise appeared at a 3 o'clock reception dressed "in the simplest possible style, and without even a single ornament." A telegram from Washington states that at the New Year's reception Mrs. Hayes wore no jewelry. The example thus set by two of the reigning families is worthy of imitation, and it strikes us as a merited rebuke to the shoddyism which is so prevalent throughout the United States.

Among the memories the death of Minister Bayard Taylor revives is that of a day in the early spring of 1862, just before McClellan's advance to Manassas. The scene was Camp Pierpoint, Va.; the occasion a review of the Pennsylvania Reserves; the persons Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Taylor proceeding in their carriage to witness the pageant, and a Union soldier just convalescing from camp fever enjoying a walk in the sunshine on a slope of the Virginia Hills. The halt of the carriage party, a pleasant greeting, kind words and an invitation to a seat in the carriage are among the memories of Bayard Taylor and wife that linger and are cherished. The distinguished guests of General Rade, the school and author whose fame was world wide, with his happy wife, had time to pause in their gala day drive and disposition to manifest kindly interest in a stranger and a private in the Army of the Potomac. May the soul of Bayard Taylor rest in peace.

The open attack upon the beliefs or those principles held in the world's unwritten law, to be morality, is to-day doing far less to injure the standard in public honor and private morality, than is the constant dribble of sturs daily dished up by the local editors of "smart" journals. Within a few years there has grown upon the Pacific coast a peculiar breed of "locals." They take some bar room incident, utterly silly, and by giving it a dressing of low wit, mingled with profanity and vulgarity, make what is called a "smart item." In a police court the scene of dragging before the world the utter shame and degradation of some poor woman, the "smart local" is in his glory and his paper appears with all the nasty details adorned and embellished by choice picking from the writer's own filthy brain. A drunken row on some back alley, where the lowest dregs of society congregate, furnishes one of these writers with material for a good half column local item. Such journalism is corrupting to the people, panders to the lowest passions of humanity and is a disgrace to an honorable profession. A daily paper should aim to give its patrons a synopsis of current events the world over, but it should also be a daily preacher in the highest and best sense. The man who would be profane or vulgar in the presence of ladies or children of a family, would be quickly shown the door, so too should the paper that would bring words of profane or vulgar import, be refused admission. We plead for a prouder and better journalism; one that will strive to lift up the whole human family to a nobler position in the world; that will cast out the vulgar and unclean in thought, deed and word, and build up a universal love for the pure, the good and the beautiful. Those journals that make of their columns sewers through which runs the public filth should be denied admission into the home or place of business of every man who wishes to see the world grow better and purer year by year. This journalistic nastiness will pass away and be consigned to the rubbish heap of hated things, as men and women are lifted into the higher plain of life and thought.

DISCOURAGING OUTLOOK.

After a retrospective glance at the condition of England in 1878, the London Times remarks that "industries have been disorganized, credit shaken, and failures multiplied on every hand." About five thousand more bankruptcies were reported than in the preceding year. Wages were reduced, many thousands of artisans kept in idleness, and as many thousands of persons above the artisan class either placed in actual want or on its confines. And the worst of it is that no signs of improvement are visible in the morning twilight of the coming year. Strangely enough, the same dispatches which bring this gloomy picture of the past and no less dismal prophecy for the future bring also reports that various trades societies are preparing for fresh strikes. The Engineers' association will strike against a proposition to increase the hours of labor, and boast that they have a quarter of a million dollars in the treasury—a sum sufficient, perhaps to keep them in comfortable idleness for three or four weeks. A general organization of iron-workers is proposed, for the purpose of resisting the increase of hours, and it is claimed that a large amount of money will be ready to sustain them. But the same thing has been promised in all the other strikes, which have left perhaps half a million working people in idleness, and the terrible distress which pervades the whole land shows how poorly the promises have been kept. It is to be hoped means may be found to avert any further extension of these calamities.

THE members of the California Constitutional Convention are all at sea on the question of double taxation. The assertion is made, and not denied, that fourteen-twentieths of the wealth of the State escapes taxation, but no one seems to be able to solve the problem. Suggestions multiply, but are each in turn opposed. The debate seems to demonstrate that nobody thoroughly understands the subject of revenue and taxation.

THE quarrel between Governor Colquitt and Senator Hill, of Georgia, has become so bitter that it has drawn in their respective followers in the State and threatens to divide the Democratic party into two hostile factions.

The week of prayer is being observed by the Methodist, Baptist and Congregational Churches uniting. The meeting at the Baptist church last evening was well attended. Tonight the meeting will be at the Methodist church instead of the Congregational as at first announced. The meetings begin at 7 o'clock each evening. All are invited.

WM. DAVIS, arrested on a charge of shooting at John Richardson, had a hearing before Judge Bowker yesterday, and was bound over to appear before the Grand Jury.

WASHOE COUNTY fared well in the way of legislative attacks. Glance over the list and see who the lucky ones are. Those who "got left" returned last night.

We understand that A. K. Lamb has withdrawn his suit for the Shriev-alty of Washoe county, thus leaving W. A. Walker in peaceful possession.

The first of a series of Masonic so- cials will take place at Masonic hall on Friday evening next.

CARSON RIVER, below the dams, is frozen over at points, the first time in five years.

The Weatherby Froliques played to a fair house last night, and gave general satisfaction.

The School for Girls opens on Thursday next, the 9th instant.

District Court.

The District Court was in session yesterday forenoon, Judge King presiding. The Grand Jury was impaneled as follows: Elias Owens, foreman, Jas. H. Kinkad, J. C. Lewis, A. C. Ross, W. H. Joy, J. C. Smith, A. A. Longley, G. W. Huffa- ker, John Cahlan, A. M. Lamb, A. H. Manning, John Klippe, Thos. Barnett, B. G. Clow, G. W. Sawyer, Maurice May, and Wm. Morrison.

Judge King set the following cases for trial: Barnett & Bros. vs George B. Hill, Jan. 20.

Mary L. Budden vs A. K. Lamb, Jan. 14.

Wood vs Sunrise Mining Co., Jan. 20.

Court adjourned to Monday next.

To be Rebuilt.

The members of the Quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church held their second meeting yesterday after- noon and among other business decided to refit the church. It will be papered and paneled, seats repain- ed and probably an orchestra will be put just behind the preacher. The members present at the meeting started the ball rolling by subscri- ing $175 toward it. The work will be commenced as soon as possible. Just now the church does not look very presentable, the plastering hav- ing become badly cracked and in several places fallen off.

Sudden Death.

Last Sunday morning Aaron D. Parks, foreman of the Crystal Ice Co., died suddenly, we believe from pneumonia. Deceased was well known in this section and at one time was Commander of the Knight Tem- plars of Nevada. He was about 60 years of age.

Last Quarter's Business.

The last quarter's business by the county officers was as follows. We take the totals of the several officers: Sheriff Lamb, $2,077 91; Clerk Com- stock, $2,382 98; Recorder Williams, $997 50.

Much Bullion.

Last Saturday night the California shipped 34 bars of bullion, worth $143,078 97; the Con. Virginia 23 bars worth $84,865 18, and the Ophir 9 bars, worth $37,476 68—making a total of 65 bars worth $265,419 83.

Fire Alarm.

Yesterday afternoon the 48 sounded the fire alarm. A defective stove- pipe in the office of the V. & T. depot caused the wood to catch, but before any very material damage was done the fire was put out.

reply in a few lines, to the ungen- tlemanly attack of the Gazette reporter on some of our Wadsworth people as to their conduct at the supper table, complain of "ill breeding," what an expression for a gentleman of his type to use, doubtful whether he ever had any breeding or even capa- ble of judging what good behavior is. No one outside that unfortunate per- sonage will say but what outsiders were treated with the utmost courtesy, and when it can be proven that fully two thirds of the Wadsworth folks took their supper at the second table it can be readily seen that the report- er must have been either dead drunk, or else willfully lies. LAST TABLE.

Crystal Cene.

A. C. McFarlin tells us of a beau- tiful sight at his ranch. There is a flume thirty feet high out of which the water has run for some time. The cold weather has frozen enough of the water to make a cone 30 feet high. It tapers gradually until it reaches the flume, and is perfectly solid with the exception of a hole directly through the middle which has been kept open by the contin- uous flow of the water. He describes it as a very pretty thing.

County Finances.

By the report of the Auditor we learn that during the quarter ending December 31st, 1878, the receipts were $76,409 89, which with the $9, 140 18 on hand made a total of $85, 550 67. Disbursements during the same time, $59,738 77; balance on hand, $25,761 34. The liabilities of the county, including court house, bridge, and poor house bonds, are $35,319 05; resources, $31,144 24; deficiency, $4,174 81.

No Water.

Stock men down on the meadows are annoyed greatly at the scarcity of water, caused by the freezing up of the river. There is an unusually large number of cattle being pastured there this Winter, and the long stretch of cold weather adds much to the dis- comforture of the herder.

The new county officers were sworn in yesterday and immediately went to work. To-day the State officers will take the oath of office and then the good old Ship of State will have a new crew.

"I don't want nozzm (hic); I've shworn off."

The Supreme Court of Massachu- setts has decided that the operatives in large factories have no right of life or limb in the event of fire or accident, because of any fault in the buildings, which the factory-owners need respect. If a factory is so con- structed that the only means of egress or escape is by jumping from a win- dow in the sixth story, in case of fire, the operatives are allowed the exclusive privilege of making the leap, or burning to death, and the owners may not come upon their heirs or assignees for damages done the windows or the fuel furnished for the roasting. In short, if factory-own- ers build so as their buildings shall be a death trap for operatives, that is prerogative; and if operatives are trapped to death in them, that is their own affair. As things go, property is more sacred than life. Only a few can get rich, but all must die.

WHATEVER the shortcomings of the reverend pastor of Plymouth, they cannot be charged upon the perusal of Sunday-school books. He was born, he says, before they were known, and twice only he attended Sunday-school when a youth. Once he was miserable because he couldn't make a loose knob on the back of his pew squeak, as he was wont to make it when his father was in the pulpit preaching upon a dry topic. Another time he was expelled because of youthful cussedness. Alas! that the boy should be parent to the man.

THEY seem to be getting particular about small steals in Brooklyn, N. Y. Four employees of the public-works department have been indicted for conspiring to rob the city of the pal- try sum of $50,000. The survivors of the glorious days of the Tweed ring must look with supreme disgust upon such petty larceny. It is not unlik- ely the conspirators will be found guilty and punished, the amount of the plunder being too insignificant to se- cure the services of competent law- yers.

according to the Government from coining of standard silver dollars during the past three weeks, after buying silver for coining, paying for transportations and allowing for wastage in the process of coining. Since the commencement of the coining of the standard dollar the Gov- ernment has profited, between the legal tender value and real value of the bullion which it contains, to the amount of about $1,600,000.

THE Nevada State JOURNAL, edited by C. C. Powning, the youngest man ever elected to the Senate, makes its appearance on New Year's Day en- larged and embellished, stored with useful and valuable information re- garding Washoe county. The energy displayed in this instance is the true secret of the success, that has gained for him the confidence of the people who have so honored him—Messenger

TALK IS CHEAP.—And so are fine clothing, boots, shoes, and gentle- men's and boys' fine furnishing goods, if you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty impor- tant point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in prices in anything in my line. Be- sides this I have only one price. I have no preferred customers. Every- body is treated alike at my establish- ment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves. I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now pre- vailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices and examine my stock be- fore going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No store- keeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I make a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods forms one of my specialties. Remember the place, The White House, No. 19., Commercial Row.

Go to the City Drug Store if you want pure, fresh drugs and medi- cines, hair and tooth Brushes, Toilet Soaps, Lubin Extracts and Florida Water, and all articles usually kept in a drug store, sold cheap, for cash. Prescriptions accurately compound- ed, day and night.

MATHESSON & McRAE, Commercial Row.

THOSE Patent Illuminating Lamps, for which the "City Drug Store" are agents, are just the thing to suit the times, gives as good a light as gas, at half the expense, and no danger of breaking chimneys. Those in need of good light will find it to their advantage to call and see them. *

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES.—Lubin's extracts for 7 bits, $1 patent medicines for 7 bits, 75 cents patent medicines for 5 bits, Florida water for 4 bits. All other patent medi- cines and toilet preparations cheaper than can be bought elsewhere. Pre- scriptions carefully compounded at greatly reduced rates at Osburn & Shoemaker's drug store. *

DON'T forget that S. N. Davidson is the only reliable jewelry store in town and always pleases his cus- tomers, sells his goods reasonable and keeps a very fine assortment of rich and elegant jewelry especially adapt- ed for the coming holidays. *

THE WEBER PIANO RECEIVED 95 out of a possible 96, while the highest number secured by any other of the forty manufacturers who competed, was only 91 out of a possible 96 and a jury adds: "Weber's Pianos were unquestionably the BEST PIANOS on exhibition. Weber's Grand Piano was the most wonderful Piano ever touched or heard," and Weber Pianos must be recognized beyond controversy as The Standard of Excellence in Every Particular.

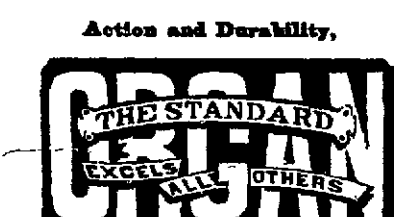

Undoubtedly Superior to those of the American Manufacturers claiming the first prize at London, Paris and Vienna.
